poor and indigent people. The rest of the day is spent in enjoyment with the other members of the family. On this day visits of New Year's Joseph Cook, which, on the principle that good wine needs no bush, is entirely unnecessary, though it would seem to have been, in a sense, not altogether uncalled for. Still, although the The following items are from the London and author's modesty may have led her to seek, or Herr Peldram, formerly German Consul at at any rate not to reject, the support of this Mr. Cook for her manuscript, she must now feel that the success which the printed book has met with is due entirely to its own merits, and we should The Chinese Minister to Washington left

The title "Pagoda Shadows" is nowhere directly explained, but it is obvious that it is intended to refer to the gloom cast by Buddhism, or generally by superstition, on the lives of the for an important post in connection with the Chinese people, more particularly on those of the Chinese women. On this thread the successive chapters of the book are strung, with two or three exceptions, to be noticed presently; and the effect on the render is (as the author doubt. less intended) one of extreme melanchely. Miss Fielde shows us in a far more vivid form than they have ever been shown before, the joyless. cheorless lives of labour (which, by the way, we wish she wouldn't call "labour") led from the cradle to the grave by Chinese peasant women,or, at least, by such of them as are allowed to live at all. And here, lest others of her readers besides the egregious Mr. Cook should be lad astray. we would point out, that throughout this book "China" does not mean theunwieldy Empire, but admitted the possession, but said the case had the Admiralty :- Lieut. J. S. Clarke, to the the small tract of country lying round Swatow with which Miss Fields has (and few foreigners have botter) a personal acquaintance. This restriction, however, Miss Fields not only does not expressly point out, but by, among other things. by which the master was declared to be free from | heading her chapter on Habitations by a view of lume. Hence it would be difficult to find in normal years part of China where poverty would be more ob vious and distressing, and where, consequently have recently been made for considerable quan- infanticide would be more common and the lives the Western M. rich, anid that on the 15th inst.

When, then, Miss Fielde advances such a proposition as (p. 6) that " a husband may beat his wife to death, and go unpunished" she does so in face of the well known fact that according to the Dynastic Code a husband slaving his wife even under the most extenuating circumstances (such is when she is abusing and beating her mother-inlaw) is liable to punishment; and she is in reality acquing from some isolated case, probably many years old, in which the then powerlessness of the law made it hopeless for the murdered woman's friends to appeal to the officials. In smaller matters the same reservation must be made. When Miss Fielde speaks (p. 72) of all roads and canals being "made labyrinthian" she implies that it is true of the whole nation; yet the canala round Ningpo run perfectly straight for miles, marder within Chinese territory, on the 10th Ocand so do the high roads that converge on Paking. So again with her theory as to the Chinese prejudice against whitewash. It is true that new florernment, and Mr. Dennys defended the round about Swatow the natives only whitewash prisoner ahouse once, namely, when it is built, but we have not heard of any prejudice in North China against more frequent washings, other than was based on a dislike to spending money on luxuries. Sometimes Miss Fielde goes so far as to express ly state that what she says is to be taken of the whole Empire:-" The great mass of the Chinesc nation lives thus in unventilated unceiled side is made of paper and in winter seems to be,

For my father, a very mothodical man, had always had twins before, because, he said, twins are so much easier to drown. You know if you give a Chinaman a bundle he always divides it in two, so that he can sling it at each and of a bamboo; and if he can't divide the bundle, no matter how heavy it is, he borrows a stone or another bundle to hang the valuable services of Mr. John Anderson, who had at the other and. And so when the twins came, served as Chairman for two years and a half, and which bappened two or three times every year, my father used to put one in one hod, and one recovered, but it is believed that many more are in another, and take them to the river. But when we were born there were three of us and so he got out his dotchin and weighed us, and because the other two weighed just 40 catties each, and I weighed 50 he put me in the washtub and went off with the others. When he came back he took me up by the leg and said "Here you!" and of course my mother knew he meant her. Then he threw me across the room. My mother said "Am I to give it to SIR the pig.?" because the pig, you know, used to feed out of the washtub, and my mother was rather upset. "No," answered my father shortly "fatten her, girls are riz," and so they called me Tale-bearer. They meant, I know, to call

LERS AFTER TERRIBLE SUFFERINGS.

BOMBAY, 26th August. The French travellers, Messrs. Convalot, Capus and Pépin, have arrived at Simla, after empty quicksilver flasks, 45 packages tea, and terrible sufferings. In crossing all the mountains the cold was so great that the mercury froze, and the air was so rarified that they could hardly breathe. There was seven feet of snow. and they had to travel by night to avoid avalanches, and had to follow the footprints of wolves to find the road. They started with 150 horses. but their followers deserted them, stealing their horses and baggage.

HOW PILLS ARE MADE.

The oustom of taking medicine in the form of pills dates for back in history. The object is to enable us to swallow easily in a condensed form disagreeable and nauseous, but very usoful, drugs. To what vast dimensions pill-taking has grown may be imagined when we say that in England slone about 2,000,000,000 (two thousand million) pills are consumed every year. In early days ongkong and Shanghai Bank Shares-129 pills were made slowly by hand, as the demand was comparatively small. To-day they are produced with infinitely greater; rapidity by mabina Traders' Insurance Company's Shares - chines especially contrived for the purpose, and with greater accuracy, too, in the proportions of

No form of medication can be better than a pill, provided only it is intelligently prepared.)a Tai Insurance Company, Limited-Tls. 148 But right here occurs the difficulty. Easy as it may seem to make a pill, or a million of them, there are really very few pills that can be henestly undershoot or overshoot the mark. As everybody takes pills of some kind, it may be well to mention what a good, safe, and reliable pill should be. Now, when one feels dull and sleepy and has more or legs pain in the bead, sides, and back, he may be sure his bowels are constipated, and his liver sluggish. To remedy this unhappy state of things there is nothing like a good out. hartic pill. It will not like a charm by stimulating the liver into doling it duty, and ridding the digestive organs of the moon unlated poison-ons matter. But the good pill does not gripe and pain us. neither does it make us sick and miserable for a few hours or a whole day. It acts on the entire Hongkong Hotel Company's Shares-3195 per glandular system at the same time, else the aftereffects of the pill will be worse than the disease itself. The griping caused by most pills is the result of irritating drugs which they contain. Such pills are harmful, and should never be used. Without having any particular desire to praise one pill above another, we may, nevertheless, name Mother Seigel's Pills, manufactured by the well-known house of A. J. White, Limited, all chemists and medicine vendors, as the only one we know of that actually possesses overy never gripe or produce the slightest sickness of the stomach, or any other unpleasant feeling constipation as nearly all other pills do. As a further and crowning merit, Mother Seigel's Pills are covered with a tasteless and harmless coating, which causes them to resemble pearls, thus rendering them as pleasant to the palute as they are effective in suring disease. If you have a severe cold and are threatened with a fever, with pains in the head, back, and limbs, one or two doses will break up the cold and prevent the fever. A coated tongue, with a brackish taste in the mouth is caused by foul matter in the stomach. A dose of Seigel's Pills will effect a speedy ours. Oftentimes partially INDO-CHINA STEAM NAVIGATIO decayed food in the stomach and bowels produces sickness, nausea, &c. Cleanso the bowels with a dose of these pills, and good health will follow. Unlike many kinds of pills, they do not make you feel worse before you are better. They are,

POST-OFFICE NOTICES. When Correspondence has been mis-sent delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover. Sent to --- or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end The Postal Guide for 1886, revised to date will be found in the Daily Press Directory.

The authorised List of Mails issued in connection with this paper is the one published twice each day in our Extra, which is always corrected to a much later hour than that given
